

Hi there,

To Log into Scadsys via scadco.co.za , you will need to do the following;

Firstly you will need to register.

Right below the Login page , there is a link that says “ Register here to access school/college information” . Click this link to register.

To register you will need the following information;

Reference Number : 0006

Account Number : P-Code of the learner

ID number : Parent ID Number (Your ID)

Email address : Your E-mail address

Cell number : Your own cell number.

Then Click Register.

Once you have registered, a Password will be sent to you via SMS.

This password will be used back at the Log in page with the same reference 0006 and P-code.

If the Registration has failed, you need to consult with the Admin office to verify your details are correct.

Please let us know if you have any further questions or still can not log in .

Kind regards
